

DODGE SUNDAY THEATRE ISSUE

"American" Councilmen Want All the Outside Resorts Closed First.

THEY THINK IT WAS A TRAP

SEE VISIONS OF HIERARCH IN WELLS' ORDINANCE.

The ordinance closing theatres Sunday was shelved by the "American" majority of the committee on municipal laws of the city council last night. A motion introduced by Councilman T. R. Black to defer action until the county commissioners agree to close resorts outside the city limits on Sunday was adopted.

This action was a direct whack at Saltair pavilion, which is owned by the Mormon church. The "American" councilmen have claimed ever since the Sunday closing ordinance was introduced that it was a church attempt to bring about a conflict between the "American" party and the evangelizing ministers who naturally favored the closing ordinance. In proof of this they have pointed out that the ordinance was introduced by Councilman Rulon S. Wells, a member of the general authorities of the Mormon church. They have also charged that the ordinance was in the interest of the Saltair resort.

Want to "Sidestep."

Ever since the ordinance was introduced the "Americans" have been anxious to "sidestep" a direct vote on the proposition. Councilman Black's motion last night afforded them the opportunity to avoid making a record on the proposition, as well as to test the sincerity of the Mormon advocates of the Sunday closing proposition. Councilman Wells opposed the action taken, and said there was no use delaying doing good in the city until good was done outside the city; but the "Americans" argued that if one resort was to be closed it was only fair that all should be closed, and that if one was to be left to remain open, all should be given the same privileges.

Theatre Man for Closing.

J. H. Garrett, secretary and treasurer of the Orpheum theatre, surprised the committee by coming before it and advocating Sunday closing. He and Councilman Mulvey had a heated argument in which Mr. Garrett and his associates admitted that the other theatres on the circuit were open on Sunday, and that the local Orpheum is chiefly concerned in knowing for a certainty whether or not the closing ordinance is to be passed, so it can arrange bookings for next year accordingly. Mr. Garrett says that if the ordinance is not passed, his theater will open Sundays next season, though he prefers personally to remain closed.

During the discussion Councilman Fernstrom pointed out that the present general Sunday closing ordinance is sufficient. If enforced, to close theatres on Sundays.

IN ARMS OVER TROOPS' REMOVAL

M. & M. A. Asks Aid of Utah Senators in Stopping Depletion of Fort.

ONLY 325 SOLDIERS LEFT

LOCAL MERCHANTS WILL LOSE $25,000 PER MONTH.

The board of directors of the Manufacturers and Merchants' association is up in arms over the gradual depletion of the troops at Fort Douglas. The following letter was mailed by the manager of the association to Senators Reed and George Sutherland, who have permitted this to go on without protest:

"Dear Sir:—The executive committee of the Manufacturers and Merchants' association of Utah begs to call your attention to the fact that the orders calling for the transfer of troops from one military post to another, which were recently given by the war department, will take two or three batteries from Fort Douglas to other posts. As yet no orders have been given transferring other troops to this post.

"The population of Fort Douglas prior to the transfer of the Twenty-second battery to Fort Russell, exclusive of civilians stationed at the Fort, at least the Nineteenth battery, which will take effect April 25th, 125 officers and men and 325 soldiers, and respectively will be removed. These transfers entail the removal of a total of 334 officers and men, leaving at the Fort only five companies of infantry, a total of 325 officers and men.

Much Trade Lost.

"The merchants of the city are concerned over the depopulation of Fort Douglas. They estimate that with the three batteries and five companies of infantry stationed at the Fort, at least $25,000 is placed in circulation in this city monthly. This includes the purchase of supplies for the commissary department and the money expended by the men in local market.

"The loss of this volume of trade will have a marked effect in many lines, and I have been instructed to implore you to bring your influence to bear upon the proper officials of the war department looking toward the transfer of a large body of troops to Fort Douglas.

"As you know, the government has recently expended a large sum of money in remodeling the post and making it one of the most beautiful and substantial in the country. I trust that you will be able to give this matter your careful attention.

"Thanking you for past courtesies and expressing the appreciation of the board and members of the association for what you may do in this instance, I am,

"Yours truly,

"GORDON H. PLACE,"

"Manager Manufacturers and Merchants' Association."

The letter was forwarded to Brigadier General William S. McCuskey, commander of the department of the Colorado.
